Designed to help those experiencing deep hurt from a loved-one or looking to change a broken relationship

Are you experiencing deep hurt from someone you love or feel stuck and wish for resolution? You may wonder, "Am I just supposed to forgive and forget?" Navigating relational disharmony and repair can be challenging. This workshop will offer techniques for overcoming the same old patterns of conflict along with exercises that will equip you with healthy communication skills. Combining Biblical wisdom, research and experience as therapists, facilitators Luke Durain, MA and Sonia Lucci, MS, LPC, will also discuss how forgiveness can be part of your journey to healing.
