Singer - Songwriter - Pianist

For more than five decades, Ken Medema has used music as a vehicle for creating connection through storytelling and reflection. He is one of the most creative and authentic artists performing today. Blind from birth, he brings a rare gift for improvisation and a deep sensitivity to every performance, creating songs that feel personal, honest, and alive in the moment. Trained as a music therapist at Michigan State University, Ken began his career working with hurting teenagers—an experience that shaped both his compassion and his songwriting. Now in his 53rd year of performing and recording, he continues to weave together story, faith, humor, and a passion for justice in ways that invite listeners into reflection, connection, and hope.
